EL LIBRO DE LOS ROSTROS

Realist

"I had been thinking about it for a while. Maybe, through Facebook it was easier for me to relate to other people. What if I became someone else, with a fake name? It would be like starting from scratch — at least online. At the time I reckoned it was a brilliant idea, but now I think about what I did and see it like it really was: absolute stupidity."

Being someone else on the Internet looks like a game. So, if you don't like who you are, why not make up a character? Or make up the person you really want to be? It's easy, funny, with no consequences. But the Internet is not too different from real life: the fingers that press the keys are human fingers, attached to real people — people with faces, people with lives that can get entangled with yours, for good ... or for evil.

EL SECRETO DE MI TURBANTE

Testimonial Fiction

Under his dark coloured turban he is conducting the morning prayer at the mosque. Everybody respects him and listens to him with attention, even though his voice sounds thin and his body is small. He is a good Muslim, generous and upright. What his friends and neighbours do not know is that under this turban there is not a young man with good influences, as they all believe, but a girl who trembles every time a Taliban approaches her, afraid that her secret will be unveiled.

El secreto de mi turbante tells the real story of Nadia Ghulam, an Afghan girl that deceived and defied the Taliban Regime. After two years hospitalised due to the wounds produced by a bomb during the civil war, Nadia is faced with a new order that forbids women to get a job. To help her family, she is forced to make a radical decision: pretending to be a man for ten years. An impressive real story.

TÚ ERES LA NOCHE

Realistic

Rai is spending August on his own in Barcelona while his parents are away on a long trip. An accident leads him to discover the Catacombs of Love, a secret club whose members have decided to rebel against the light of day, living exclusively by night.

Its members include Lucia, an eighteen year old girl who has survived a suicide attempt, a poète maudit, an adolescent seemingly allergic to sunlight, and a fugitive from a crime whom no one knows.

This strange group seems to be under the sway of Evan, a young nihilist who has created The Night Institute, a place where participants share information about the changes that their bodies undergo the more time they spend away from light.

One week is the minimum time necessary to be initiated. Two weeks qualifies a person to enter The Cage of Darkness, a pit beneath the Catacombs where absolute darkness reigns. There, in the shadows, the attraction that the Nocturnals go to see is Sira, a young woman submitting herself to the ultimate test.

What would happen to you if you never again saw the light of the sun?

YES, WE DANCE

Middle Grade

Yes, we dance is the story of Martina, Sofia and Liu, three fans of the BB Brothers. After their success in New York, the Saturn Stars live like celebrities in their own neighborhood, with all the problems that it unvelves. When summer comes, and with it the tour with their idols, they feel like their biggest dream is coming true, but they can't imagine the setbacks they'll encounter on the road with the most famous brothers in the planet: the caravan they'll travel and sleep in will suffer all kinds of mishaps; they will be abandoned on the road when the "road manager" flees with the money and, because Brian and Brandon fight all the time, sleep late and don't feel like practicing, the shows won't be as good as expected.

ESTHER SANZ

Esther Sanz (Barcelona, 1974) holds a degree in Journalism. She has written for women's magazines and currently works as an Editor. Her greatest passion since she was a teenager is romantic literature. After publishing Vive rápido, siente despacio (Live Fast, Feel Slowly, Talismán, 2007) and Los siete soles de la felicidad (The Seven Suns of Happiness, Umbriel, 2011), she engaged in a new adventure with the young adults' trilogy El bosque (The Forest) — an absorbing romantic thriller with specks of fantasy. After a brief creative lapse, in 2014 she published Si el amor es una isla (If Love Is an Island, Destino), a novel inspired by the master works of British Romanticism. Now she presents the series Yes, we dance.

LOS SECRETOS DEL VIEJO HORACE

Young Adult

Scott is 27 years old and the only thing he can brag about until now is to have failed in each and every aspect of his life. After giving up two degrees, he has passed through different jobs without taking roots in any of them. Love has been a constant failure for him, too. Since his last girlfriend abandoned him, Scott feels his life as an endless desert.

With his self-esteem at a minimum, he is forced to accept a simple -and apparently underpaid- job in his own building. On the first day, the hermit-like tenant of the attic will ask Scott to play snakes and ladders with him, which Scott has not played since he was a kid. Very soon, Scott will discover that the elder man uses the squares of the board to give him essential lessons -one every morning- for his life. While the mornings pass by among coffees, rounds and conversations, this simple pastime (created by the Greek soldiers during Troy's siege) will help Horace teach Scott the art of living and how to fix those mistakes that led him to failure until now.

Scott will begin to understand the causes and effects that have given shape to his present. However, Horace will also advise him that knowing the rules of the game is not enough. Once you are aware of the traps and dangers, the labyrinths and shortcuts, you must be brave enough to move forward on the board of life with courage and sense of adventure.
