WOMEN'S FICTION

THE TASTER, V.S. ALEXANDER / 304 PP

Previous title The Magdalen Girls was a #1 Amazon bestseller in the Women's Fiction-Friendship category

Historical fiction ideal for fans of Tatiana de Rosnay's Sarah's Key and Jenna Blum's Those Who Saved Us: set in Germany during the end of World War II, following MAGDA RITTER, a young, naïve, and sheltered German woman who finds herself working for Adolf Hitler as a professional food taster. As she sees from inside Hitler's closed circle the suffering he is inflicting on her family, her countrymen and the enemies of his state, she joins a plot to murder him.

** V. S. Alexander has a gift for casting a hopeful light on very dark periods of human history as experienced through his complex female characters.

THE FUTURE SHE LEFT BEHIND, MARIN THOMAS / 336 PP

Marin Thomas is the award-winning author of more than twenty-five novels, including the Cash Brothers series and The Promise of Forgiveness

Cast aside by her cheating husband, Katelyn Chandler is ready to pack it all in and drive home to Little Springs, Texas. She wants a chance to regroup, reconnect with her mother, and get back to creating art. But Shirley Pratt—master manipulator, elitist snob, and Katelyn's terror of a live-in mother-in-law—has other ideas. Shirley insists on joining Katelyn's trip after her son tries to ship her off to a retirement community. Katelyn has no choice but to play peacekeeper between the ornery old woman and the proud matrons of Little Springs. Yet the small town seems to be changing Shirley. And as Katelyn weighs the wisdom of picking up where she left off with Jackson Mendoza, town bad boy and her high school sweetheart, she must find a way to believe in the strength of her dreams

NEW ADULT

THE RED, TIFFANY REISZ / XXX PP

The Red is a standalone novel of erotic fantasy by Tiffany Reisz, international bestselling author of The Bourbon Thief and the Original Sinners series.

Mona Lisa St. James made a deathbed promise that she would do anything to save her mother's art gallery. Unfortunately, not only is The Red painted red, but it's in the red.

Just as she realizes she has no choice but to sell it, a mysterious man comes in after closing time and makes her an offer: He will save The Red if she agrees to submit to him for the period of one year. The man is handsome, English, and terribly tempting...but surely her mother didn't mean for Mona to sell herself to a stranger. Then again, she did promise to do anything to save The Red...

Tiffany Reisz has sold over 1,000,000 copies of this series - it's an international bestselling series and was on the bestseller list in the UK several times. Her work has been translated to 10 countries.

THRILLER

ALL THE LITTLE CHILDREN, JO FURNISS / 318 PP

A post-apocalyptic, female-driven thriller that looks at how far a mother will go to keep her children safe after a terrorist attack.

Struggling with working-mother guilt, Marlene Greene hopes a camping trip in the forest will provide quality time with her three young children until they see fires in the distance, columns of smoke distorting the sweeping view. Overnight, all communication with the outside world is lost. Knowing something terrible has happened, Marlene suspects that the isolation of the remote campsite is all that's protecting her family. But the arrival of a lost boy reveals they are not alone in the woods, and as the unfolding disaster ravages the land, more youngsters seek refuge under her wing. The lives of her own children aren't the only ones at stake. When their sanctuary is threatened, Marlene faces the mother of all dilemmas: Should she save her own kids or try to save them all?

“A chilling and beautifully woven tale that will keep you up turning the pages” – Emily Bleeker

RUIN OF ANGELS, MAX GLADSTONE / 576 PP

Part urban, part epic, a suspenseful and fast-paced urban fantasy filled wit, humor and sass.

The God Wars destroyed the city of Alikand. Now, a century and a half later, Agdel Lex rises in its place. Dead deities litter the surrounding desert, streets shift when people aren't looking, and the foreign Iskari Rectification Authority keeps strict order in this once-independent city.

Priestess/investment banker Kai Pohala hits town to corner Agdel Lex's burgeoning nightmare startup scene, and to visit her estranged sister Lei. But Kai finds Lei desperate at the center of a shadowy business deal. When Lei ends up on the run, Kai races to track her down before the Authority finds her first. But Lei has her own plans, involving her ex-girlfriend and, perhaps, freedom for an occupied city. Because Alikand might not be completely dead—and some people want to finish the job.

A GIRL LIKE THAT, THANAZ BATHENA / PP

First print run 25,000 copies, powerful marketing plan behind, social networks much diffusion.

Sixteen-year-old Zarin Wadia is many things: a bright and vivacious student, an orphan, a risk taker. She's also the kind of girl that parents warn their kids to stay away from: a troublemaker whose many romances are the subject of endless gossip at school. You don't want to get involved with a girl like that, they say. So how is it that eighteen-year-old Porus Dumasia has only ever had eyes for her? And how did Zarin and Porus end up dead in a car together, crashed on the side of a highway in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia? When the religious police arrive on the scene, everything everyone thought they knew about Zarin is questioned. And as her story is pieced together, told through multiple perspectives, it becomes clear that she was far more than just a girl like that.

ALEX AND ELIZA, MELLISA DE LA CRUZ / PP

150,000 copies sold in five weeks as a New York Times Best Seller since its publication on April 11!

As battle cries of the American Revolution echo in the distance, servants flutter about preparing for one of New York society's biggest events: the Schuylers' grand ball. Descended from two of the oldest and most distinguished bloodlines in New York, the Schuylers are proud to be one of their fledgling country's founding families, and even prouder still of their three daughters Angelica, with her razor-sharp wit; Peggy and Eliza, whose beauty and charm rival that of both her sisters. Still, she can barely contain her excitement when she hears of the arrival of one Alexander Hamilton, a mysterious, rakish young colonel and General George Washington's right-hand man. Though Alex has arrived as the bearer of bad news for the Schuylers, he can't believe his luck—as an orphan, and a bastard one at that to be in such esteemed company.

NON FICTION

THE MAGICIAN SPIRITS, DEBORAH NOYES / 81 PP

“Magic, science, religion, ghosts, love, death, friendship, deceit, sleuthing—this book has it all!

A century ago, the curious idea that spirits not only survive death but can be contacted on the “other side” was widespread. Psychic mediums led countless séances, claiming to connect the grieving with their lost relations through everything from frenzied trance writing to sticky expulsions of ectoplasm. The craze caught Harry Houdini’s attention. Well-known by then as a magician and escape artist, he began to investigate these spiritual phenomena. Are ghosts real? Can we communicate with them? Catch them in photographs? Or are all mediums “flim-flammers,” employing tricks and illusions like Houdini himself? Peopled with odd and fascinating characters, Houdini’s fascinating quest will excite readers’ universal wonderment with life, death, and the possibility of the Beyond.

UPSTART CROW LITERARY

What is an upstart crow, anyway? To begin with, it is an insult slung at the young Shakespeare in 1592 by Robert Greene. His obvious irritation at the younger artist's pluck and nerve is typical of the response of the old guard toward any new talent. Something in the phrase speaks of courage and daring, and they feel we should all be upstart crows when it comes to our writing and our work.

(<http://www.upstartcrowliterary.com/>)
