March 19, 2019

Be swept into a world where forests are hungry; knights fight with whips; the king is dying; and a peasant girl's magic will decide the future of the realm.

When Emeline's little brother breaks all three of their rules, she is forced to use her family's forbidden magic to rescue him from the dark things he awakens—the Ithin. Now that the Ithin are stirring, Emeline must, by law, travel to the royal court and warn the king. But the only way she and her family can make the journey is with the protection of a sour magister and a handsome, whip-wielding Lash Knight. And even then, Emeline may not survive the capital, where conspiracies swirl like smoke and her magic is all but outlawed.

SIMONE SNAITH sings in the band Turning Violet and works as a freelance journalist.

Spliced

Sixteen-year-old Jimi knows people change, but her best friend, Del, is obsessed with getting spliced: adding animal genes into his own. Some powerful players want to have these chimeras officially declared “nonpersons”—so when Del goes missing, Jimi is desperate to find him before he alters himself forever.

Splintered

BY JON MCGORAN

What Jimi Corcoran is about to discover just might take her breath away. Literally.

Jimi can’t quite shake the spotlight, or her suspicion that she’s being watched. When she makes a shocking discovery about a remote hospital, she also uncovers a clandestine, pro-chimera group that seems strangely uninterested in exposing the truth. Haunting and action-packed, Jon McGoran’s highly anticipated follow-up to Spliced digs even deeper into a gritty, near-future world in which lawless science is a rich man’s game—and Jimi and her friends are unwilling players.

Spliced Book #3 coming in Summer 2020

JON MCGORAN has written six thrillers for adults, including the D. H. Dublin series. The Spliced series is his first young adult project.

Realm of Ruins

BY HANNAH WEST

I was meant to touch the untouchable, destroy the indestructible.

Valory Braiosa only acquired her destructive, unruly power through a tragic accident. She flees to protect her home from her unchecked magic, only to encounter a resurrection spell cast by a bitter, lonely prince that awakens a long-dormant evil. As chaos spreads, Valory meets a handsome, secretive traveler determined to topple the resurrected tyrant. They set out with a bickering band of allies, but the enemy is far more cunning than they imagined, and they must brave plagues, betrayal, and time-bending power struggles to save the soul of the realm.

HANNAH WEST’s debut was Kingdom of Ash and Briars. Realm of Ruins is her second novel.

Hogwarts meets The Bourne Identity at Desert Mountain Academy, the covert CIA boarding school where what you don't know can kill you.

Desert Dark

BY SONJA STONE

Nadia is having a tough time at her new school: a secret program training high-achieving students for the Black Ops. When news leaks that there's a double agent on campus, Nadia discovers each of her classmates is hiding something . . . and one of them is the deserter.

For fans of Marie Lu's Legend series and the Maze Runner books, Desert Dark's heart-pounding plot is woven through the alternate perspectives of a diverse cast of characters.

The Space Between Before and After

BY SUE STAUFFACHER

When Thomas' mother disappears, he creates a fantasy story where he knows she is safe in this gorgeously written novel for fans of A Monster Calls.

Ten-year-old Thomas gets home from school one day and his mother is gone. The police search everywhere, but they can't find her. Thomas's neighbor helps him cope with his anxiety by having him think up a fantasy about where she might have gone. With the help of his increasingly magical narrative journey, family, and his friends, Thomas begins to realize that even if his mother never comes back, he can still hold a place for her in his heart and mind.

SUE STAUFFACHER is the author of Donuthead and Cassidy's Guide to Everyday Etiquette (and Obfuscation), which was an ALA Notable Book.

A Slip of a Girl

BY PATRICIA REILLY GIFF

Two-time Newbery Honor winner Patricia Reilly Giff paints a haunting history of post-famine Ireland in this story of adversity, resilience, and self-determination.

An Irish girl finds her inner strength in this novel of tragedy and empowerment set in Ireland in the early 1890s, told in poignant verse. Anna's mother has died, and her older siblings have immigrated, leaving Anna and her father to care for a young sister with special needs and no money to pay the rent on the farm. When a violent encounter with the rent collector results in Anna and her father's arrest, all seems lost. But Anna sees her chance and bolts from the jailhouse. Suddenly, she is on the run, fending for herself and her sister.

Two Brothers, Four Hands

The Artists Alberto and Diego Giacometti

BY JAN GREENBERG AND SANDRA JORDAN,
ILLUSTRATED BY HADLEY HOOPER

Everyone who knew them agreed: Alberto was the genius of the family. His younger brother Diego was his opposite—he didn't care much for books or schoolwork, and he had no idea what he would be when he grew up. But despite their differences, the two brothers shared an intense bond. Alberto Giacometti became one of the iconic artists of the twentieth century, whose tall, spindly sculptures grace museums around the world. Diego was always at his side, helping and encouraging, and in his spare time creating remarkable pieces of furniture, works of sculpture in their own right.

The poignant story of brothers and sculptors Alberto and Diego Giacometti is skillfully brought to life in the hands of multiple Sibert Honor authors Jan Greenberg and Sandra Jordan, and the spectacular artwork of Hadley Hooper.

JAN GREENBERG and SANDRA JORDAN collaborated on Action Jackson (Sibert Honor Book), The Mad Potter (Sibert Honor Book), Ballet for Martha (Sibert Honor Book and Orbis Pictus Award), and Meet Cindy Sherman, the recent recipient of five starred reviews. HADLEY HOOPER illustrated the Coretta Scott King winning memoir How I Discovered Poetry by Marilyn Nelson and Patricia MacLachlan's The Iridescence of Birds.

Why?

BY LAURA VACCARO SEEGER

Why? Why? Why? asks Rabbit. Bear answers patiently . . . except sometimes, Bear just doesn't know why.

Bear just wants to water his flowers, but Rabbit needs to know: why? Bear is looking forward to a peaceful night of stargazing, but all Rabbit cares about is: why? As the two friends spend time together through spring, summer, and into fall, Rabbit persistently asks Bear why, encouraging the reader to figure out for themselves the reason for the question that Bear dutifully answers, over and over again.

In this beautifully illustrated book with hugely expressive characters, Laura Vaccaro Seeger departs from her signature style, working for the first time in watercolor and creating a disarmingly simple and engaging story with big emotional impact.

Clever bear turns the tables on four small bullies in this trickster tale.

While feasting on manju (red bean) cakes, Mouse, Fox, Spider, and Snake plot to scare their neighbor, Bear. But Bear is the bravest animal in the forest. The only thing Bear is scared of is manju! Or is he?

This fresh take on bullying is based upon “Scary Manju,” a tale in the Japanese oral tradition known as rakugo.

Let's Scare Bear is YUKO KATAKAWA's debut picture book.

First Star

A Bear and Mole Story

BY WILL HILLENBRAND

Bear tells Mole a bedtime story in this enchanting tale of friendship and starry nights.

Beloved characters Bear and Mole are back for a fifth adventure! It's a beautiful summer afternoon, and Mole wants to stay outside and watch the stars turn on. Bear suggests they hike up to Camp Tiptop and stay the night. They pack, stop to pick blueberries—yum, yum, yum!—and climb, climb, climb. As dusk falls at the summit, Bear tells Mole the legend of how the first stars came to be: long ago, First Father Bear, First Mother Bear, and First Little Bear were the only bears in the world, and there were no moon or stars. . . .

WILL HILLENBRAND has written and illustrated numerous children's books, including his popular Bear and Mole series.

Birds of a Feather

Bowerbirds and Me

May 14, 2019

Sibert Medalist Susan L. Roth is like a bowerbird, a small black bird that builds elaborate structures from various materials they find near their habitats. Though Susan creates books to attract readers and bowerbirds build bowers to attract a mate, both get their ideas from the world around them and the materials they find. Both love color. No two of their respective creations are alike. And most importantly, both Susan and the bowerbirds aspire for their finished works to be greater than the sum of their parts.

This visually delightful picture book from award-winning author and artist Susan L. Roth is a fascinating comparison of art we create and art we find in nature.

SUSAN L. ROTH makes acclaimed books for children using her distinct collaging art style. She received the Sibert Medal for her book Parrots over Puerto Rico, which she co-wrote with Cindy Trumbore.

Light Waves

BY DAVID A. ADLER, ILLUSTRATED BY ANNA RAFF

★ “[A] smart exploration of flotation and density.”
 —Publishers Weekly, starred review for Things That Float and Things That Don’t

★ “Engaging . . . jaunty, imaginative.”—Booklist, starred review for Things That Float and Things That Don’t

How does light work? Where does it come from? What is it made of? A decorated team is back to explain the basics of the electromagnetic spectrum, photon particles, light scattering, reflection and refraction, and solar energy. Hands-on activities demonstrate how light travels and how to bend light yourself!

Exploring the Deep, Dark Sea

Dive deep with Gail Gibbons as she explains the mechanics and discoveries of deep-sea exploration.

The surface of the moon is more familiar to us than the deep sea of our own planet. Many oceanographers are trying to change that. Gail Gibbons invites readers along for a journey to the deep sea, explaining the technology for exploration and the animals found at different sea levels. This new edition is filled with the latest information, updated for the first time since the book’s original publication by Little, Brown in 1999.

The Puffins Are Back

The beloved Atlantic Puffin was nearly extinct, until some enterprising scientists came to the rescue . . .

Atlantic Puffins were once hunted to near-extinction. Now, through a careful breeding program, scientists eagerly await the puffins’ return each year to hatch their young. With cheerful illustrations and clear text, Gail Gibbons explains the conservation program and the life cycle of this amazing bird. This new edition is filled with the latest information, updated for the first time since the book’s original publication by HarperCollins in 1991.
