Fiction:

A WEDDING ON THE BEACH by Holly Chamberlin – July 2019

Summer beach read: when 42-year-old beach-town resident Bess finally meets the man of her dreams, she's determined to make her wedding special. She rents a beach house and invites her friends to spend two weeks reminiscing and celebrating the future. But it isn't long before troubling secrets come to the surface and Bess's perfect beach wedding looks like it's not going to be so perfect after all.

- Rights to Chamberlin's previous novels have sold in German and Turkish

LOVE LETTERING by Kate Clayborn – March 2020

Meg is an art school dropout who made a name for herself as New York City's most in-demand hand-letter artist. The demands of her new business drain her creative spirit, fracture her friendships, and challenge her love for the city. Almost a year ago, Meg sat across a table from handsome, Wall Street drone Reid and his gorgeous fiancée...and knew within moments that their marriage was doomed. A single, secret word woven into the lettering of the couple's wedding program was a code Meg never thought anyone would see. But she hadn't counted on sharp-eyed, pattern-obsessed Reid. What starts as a somewhat rocky friendship between two people looking for answers about their work, their lives, and the city they've both forgotten how to enjoy may turn into something more.

- Bulgarian and Danish Rights Sold to Clayborn's previous Chance of a Lifetime series, which was featured in the New York Times Book Review.

142 OSTRICHES by April Davila – March 2020

Debut women's fiction: follows 22-year-old Tallulah who is desperate to escape her life as a hired hand on her family's ostrich farm in the Mojave Desert. But when her grandmother dies under suspicious circumstances, Tallulah becomes the sole heir of the ranch – just as the birds mysteriously stop laying their eggs during peak season. Resolved to hide this news and sell the ranch, Tallulah must overcome her dysfunctional family: the reality of her grandmother's probable suicide, her estranged mother's alcoholism, and her uncle's addiction.

CLOVER BLUE by Eldonna Edwards – June 2019

Coming-of-age novel set in a 1970's California commune and told from a young boy's point of view: a diverse group of people live together, following a guru-like leader. Details about young member Clover Blue's past are shadowy, and although he loves his flawed but well-intentioned tribe, he grapples with loyalties toward the family he doesn't remember. With the urging of his best friend, Blue begins to unravel secrets surrounding his arrival at the community, and those who conspired to hide the truth. Illuminates a boy's search for identity and deep-rooted yearning for home.

OUR NEW NORMAL by Colleen Faulkner – September 2019

A married couple finds their lives turned upside down when their teenage daughter suddenly finds herself pregnant, deciding to keep her baby and raise it herself -- until abandoning all responsibility and leaving her child to her parents. Now the question is: do they raise their grandchild and put the dreams for their future on hold, or do they give the baby to a younger couple yearning for a child of their own?

- Rights to Faulkner's Julia's Daughters sold in Poland

ALL ABOUT EVIE by Cathy Lamb – November 2019

Set on the San Juan Islands: as a child, Evie was unnerved by her premonitions. As an adult, they have become a simple fact of life. Evie's mother and aunts are well known on the island for their free-spirited ways. This tourist season promises to be extra busy: Evie's sister is getting married. As Jules plans her unconventional wedding, she arranges to do a DNA test with her mother, sister, and aunts, to see how much accepted lore about their heritage holds true. The results blow apart everything Evie has grown up believing about herself and her family.

MONARCH MANOR by Maureen Leurck – August 2019

Erin is boxing up her grandmother's things when she finds an envelope full of photos. One of the family photographs, dated in the 1920s, features a woman seated with a boy the spitting image of Erin's five-year-old autistic son. As Erin looks further into her family's history, she discovers a parallel to her present-day life: the boy in the picture was deaf. Erin continues to delve into the past, revealing what really happened to the woman and her son all those years ago.

DATING BY THE BOOK by Mary Ann Marlowe – July 2019

Modern spin on The Shop Around the Corner and You've Got Mail for fans of Emily Giffin and Taylor Jenkins Reid: six months ago, writer and bookstore owner Maddie broke off her engagement. Since then, she has zero interest in romance—despite running a book club full of sexy bachelors. But when her debut novel is panned by an anonymous blogger who goes by the name Silver Fox, accusing her of knowing nothing about passion, she decides to prove her nemesis wrong—by lining up a series of dates. There's the rock musician, the professor, her childhood friend whom she always shared a spark with, and her ex. Even Silver Fox is in on the action, sending Maddie flirtatious emails.

- German, Hungarian, and Russian Rights Sold for DATING BY THE BOOK
- Rights to Marlowe's previous novels sold in French and Russian

THE SECRET LIFE OF MAC by Melinda Metz – February 2019

Follow-up to Talk to the Paw, also works as a standalone: this time, MacGyver the cat, who has an astonishing talent for stealing items from his neighbors, helps stop a greedy developer from evicting the residents of an assisted living facility. Mac has discovered The Gardens, an assisted living community, and quickly involves himself with the residents. He poses for a drawing class, steals Bingo markers, and even convinces Nate, the hardworking manager, to go home and get some rest (by repeatedly knocking his paperwork off his desk). In this installment, the couple Mac brings together is his owner Jamie's cousin (who ran away from the altar and fled to cat-sit Mac), and one of the caring employees of The Gardens.

- Dutch, French, German, Russian, Spanish rights sold for THE SECRET LIFE OF MAC
- Rights sold to Talk to the Paw: Czech, Dutch, French, German, Italian, Portuguese (Brazil & Portugal), Spanish, Turkish, and Vietnamese

Standalone: having lost her parents and brother at a young age, 33-year-old CJ has devoted herself to her career as an assistant to a member of Congress. After CJ stumbles on information that indicates her boss may be involved in shady dealings involving a pharmaceutical company, he goes missing. With the help of Colin, her late brother's life partner, CJ attempts to dig deeper. Fern Michaels has had 91 consecutive New York Times and/or USA Today bestsellers.

- Rights to Michaels' previous titles have sold in Czech, Estonian, German, Hungarian, Italian, Lithuanian, Turkish

THE SISTERS by Rosalind Noonan – December 2018

Dark women's fiction focusing on the journeys of broken women and what mothers will do for their daughters: 11 years ago, recently widowed Glory decided the way to secure the best life for her two daughters—five-year-old Ruby and baby Aurora— was to abandon them, running off with a group of women who promised a better life. Though the refuge she hoped for turned out to be a sham, she believes Ruby and Aurora are better off without her. Now, 16-year-old Ruby loves her adoptive parents, but she hasn't forgotten Glory and sets out in search of her. What she finds is a ramshackle house of castaway women, referred to as "sisters," ruled over by a manipulative bully who monitors their every move.

- Rights to Noonan's previous novels have sold in German and Polish

WHATEVER IT TAKES by Jessica Pack – June 2019

Faced with breast cancer, a young woman questions the family history that forms her identity in a novel for fans of Jodi Picoult: Sienna has no memory of her late mother, yet every significant day of her life has been marked by a letter written during her mother's last weeks of life. Sienna knows her father feels grateful to be able to offer up these connections to her mother, but for Sienna, the letters have become a burden. A month before her 25th birthday, Sienna finds a lump in her breast and begins to ask questions about her mother that reveal unsettling inconsistencies. The deeper she digs, the more the image of her mother warps into something much less idealistic. Pack's debut As Wide As The Sky (2018) was selected as a 2018 Great Group Reads Book by the Women's National Book Association.

ALASKAN CATCH by Sue Pethick – October 2019

It's Emily's first week as a fish inspector in her temporary home of Alaska when an enormous black dog tears into the cannery and knocks her down. As the cannery workers laugh, she scrambles to her feet, ready to chew out the owner, Sam. Despite their ill-fated introduction, Emily and Sam are soon an item. But when a member of Sam's crew dies at sea, Emily fears she'll end up a young widow. Scared, she bids Sam goodbye and returns home to San Diego, unaware that her mother has picked out the man she thinks Emily should marry.

- Rights to Pethick's previous novels have sold in German, Portuguese (Brazil), and Russian

Jackson is a #1 New York Times-bestselling author, as well as an international bestseller. There are over 30 million copies of her book in print, and she has been translated into 19 languages. A killer on the loose in Grizzly Falls, Montana, makes the business of murder deeply personal for Detectives Regan Pescoli and Selena Alvarez.

PARANOID by Lisa Jackson – July 2019

From #1 New York Times-bestselling author Jackson comes a nerve-jangling suspense as a woman haunted by guilt realizes that nothing can be trusted—not even her own memory: there are people in town who think that 20 years ago, Rachel got away with murder. Rachel still has no idea how a foolish teenaged game turned deadly—or who replaced the soft pellet air gun she thought she was using with a real weapon. When a figure leapt out at her from the darkness of the old fish processing plant, she fired without thinking. Too late, she recognized her half-brother, Luke, and saw the blood blooming around his chest. Now busy raising two teens after her divorce, she'd rather not attend her upcoming high school reunion. But as Rachel confronts old memories, she feels her imagination playing tricks on her: objects in her house have moved, there's a hint of unfamiliar cologne in the air, someone is tailing her car.

- Jackson is an international bestseller, rights have been sold around the world, please inquire on each title.

But all plans are stopped, when she finds herself the target of a rogue pirate. O'Dell is the pseudonym for an award-winning fantasy romance author.

BEYOND THE GATE: A Kathy Ryan Novel (#3) by Mary SanGiovanni – November 2019

Kathy Ryan's work as an occult investigator often leads her to the outskirts of society, law, and even reality. Knowing that other dimensions exist is one thing, venturing into them is another. In the course of its experiments, Paragon Corp—a government-sourced theoretical physics research institute—has discovered a supposedly empty alternate world. There is strange, alien flora but seemingly no sentient beings...just a huge, abandoned city that a team of scientists is sent to explore – until they disappear. Kathy is hired to locate the team, bring them back, and close the gate for good. In the vein of a commercial fantasy version Jeff VanderMeer's Annihilation.

DAWN OF THE HUNTERS: Hunters of Infinity (#3) by Ryan Wieser – May 2019

Trilogy set in space featuring a strong female lead: the vast Daharian galaxy exists under the rule and protection of a valiant brotherhood, the Hunters of Infinity. The skilled fighters will admit no one short of perfect into their ranks, and absolutely no women. Until one night when everything changes. Young and intrepid Hunter, Kohl, finds himself and his mentor under attack – only to be rescued by a mysterious woman who goes by the name Jessop. Soon they learn that their savior has escaped their greatest enemy. Certain that this woman may be the key to their ultimate success; they allow her to remain.

WHAT DOES IT FEEL LIKE TO DIE? by Jennie Dear – July 2019

People have always been curious about what it feels like to die, and it is estimated that 90% of people in developed nations will die after living for weeks, months, or even years with the knowledge that they have a fatal disease. With that knowledge in hand, they (and their loved ones) want to know what the dying process will feel like. WHAT DOES IT FEEL LIKE TO DIE? answers their questions and fills the gap between bestselling books written by medical professionals or caregivers and highly individual stories about death. Dear combines the latest research and medical findings with her own experiences as a hospice volunteer and caregiver.

Inspired by her own personal journey with her mother's long-term illness, Dear demystifies the experience of dying for everyone whose lives it touches. She spoke to doctors, nurses, and caregivers, as well as families, friends, and the patients themselves. The result is a brilliantly researched, eye-opening account that combines the latest medical findings with sensitive human insights to offer real emotional support, practical advice, and the answers to the questions we all want to know, such as: does dying hurt? Is it necessary to go through the Five Stages of Grief? The last few hours: What does it feel like to die?

- German Rights Sold to WHAT DOES IT FEEL LIKE TO DIE?

LIGHTNING SKY: A U.S. Fighter Pilot Captured During World War II and His Father's Quest to Find Him by Rebecca George – May 2019

THE GIFTS BENEATH YOUR ANXIETY: Simple Spiritual Tools to Find Peace, Awaken the Power Within and Heal Your Life by Pat Longo – July 2019

Longo is a spiritual healer and life coach and has worked with thousands of clients from across the United States and 35 countries—through one-on-one sessions, seminars, workshops and other events. Longo specializes in helping people overcome anxiety. Most clients who come to Pat have tried therapy, psychiatry, or medication without success. But what if there is an entirely different way to think about anxiety? Over the years, Longo has discovered that many people who suffer from anxiety are highly empathetic people who possess an extreme sense of intuition. Without the tools to cope with this sensitivity, being an empath can lead to overwhelming anxiety. But with the right mindset and practices, one can transform sensitivity into spiritual connection, eliminating anxiety and related symptoms.

999: THE EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF THE FIRST WOMEN IN AUSCHWITZ by Heather Dune Macadam – January 2020

The story of the first 1,000 (less one) Jews sent to Auschwitz—all of whom were girls and young women. And nobody has told their story, until now. These 999 young women were deemed powerless and insignificant—not only because they were Jewish, but also because they were female. Even though these women were sold by their government into Nazi slave labor, they managed to survive. This fascinating and strong story is even more relevant in today's culture. Complete with new testimony and extensive archival research, 999: THE EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF THE FIRST WOMEN IN AUSCHWITZ gives voices to these women and girls that history forgot. Macadam's previous WWII nonfiction story, Rena's Promise (not with Kensington) was published in Germany, Japan, Brazil, Holland, Turkey, and the UK. 999 will also be turned into a feature length documentary.
