LA REVOLTA DELS MITJONS

(THE SOCKS' RIOT)

How many socks have you lost? Where do all the lost socks go? We finally have the answer!

Martina and her friends have a theory: the washing machine is a magic portal that leads to a parallel world where all the lost socks can be found. In this world called Gelàndia, humans are considered a threat because an ancient prophecy says that a human girl will be the end of them. Without knowing the threat, she poses, Martina is condemned to a storytelling duel. During the challenge, while she has no way of defending herself, a professional storyteller condemns the tyrannical rule of Gelàndia and reveals the truth: the human girl of the prophecy will not be the end of them, but their way to freedom, and that's why the leaders considered her a threat..

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Sebastià Bennassar was born in 1976 in Mallorca. EL UNIVERSO EN TUS MANOS

(THE UNIVERSE IN YOUR HANDS)

Our story begins on this small blue dot...

When Eva goes up to the attic where Grandfather Leonardo works, there is no trace of him. The grandfather is a very clever inventor and always explains scientific concepts to his granddaughter, but maybe this time he's done a dangerous experiment. Maybe this kind of spaceship with the door open is not as harmless as she thinks.

Eva decides to enter the capsule without knowing that she will begin the most important adventure of her life, that is rescuing her grandfather while learning incredible things about the place we live in; the Universe.

LA PUERTA DE LOS TRES CERROJOS

(THROUGH THE BOLTED DOOR)

This book has been called a classic science-informative fiction book.

Niko, a lonely 14 years old boy, cannot imagine the consequences that taking a different route to school on day will take. By following a different path, he finds a house that he has never seen before.

Intreagued by the mystery, he steps inside and finds himself inside a strange universe. In the Quantum World amazing things happen: a war between matter and antimatter, the disappearances and reappearances of Schrödinger's cat disappearances or a clockmaker's workshop where the relativity of time is tested. Immersed in this unexpected adventure,

Niko's mission is to restore the balance, now in danger, between his world and the quantum universe that he has just discovered.

This is an exciting and illuminating fable targeted at children (9+); a story that illustrates with incredible simplicity the mysteries of the universe and the matter written by a young doctor in quantum physics that has worked in the most prestigious research centres of the world.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Sonia Fernández-Vidal (Barcelona, 1978) graduated in Physics from the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona with a PHD on Information and Quantum Optics. She combines her research with another one of her passions, teaching, both in college and in adult facilities, and giving lectures as an introduction to quantum physics to non-academic audiences. EL LADRÓN DE MINUTOS

(THE MINUTES' THIEF)

What would you do if your birthday disappeared from the calendar?

You think that is impossible? If so, ask Edu. Authorities have decided to get rid of a day in the annual calendar, and, very unfortunately, they have chosen the sixth of October, Edu's birthday. He is now stuck at the age of 10 and he certainly doesn't like that. But, as he knows, in order to solve a big problem, he requires a better solution.

Like Alice in Carroll's Alice in Wonderland, Edu is very much worried about TIME. Inspired by Michel Ende's novel MOMO and the question of how time is used by humans in modern societies, The Minute's Thief is also a story about the importance of finding time and taking it back.

What is it that really gives value to life?

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

David Lozano Garbala (Zaragoza, 1974) is the author of Edu's magical adventure. With a degree in Law and Spanish Philology, he published his debut novel in 1998, titled The Last Guest. Since then, he has published nine other stories, including the gothic fantasy trilogy La puerta oscura: El viajero, El mal, Réquiem (2008-2009). He also has a master's degree in Communication by the University Miguel Hernández and has contributed as scriptwriter for various Film and TV producers. He is currently working on the film adaptation of the first novel of his trilogy "El Viajero" (2008)..

CUENTOS PARA QUERERTE MEJOR

(TALES TO LOVE YOURSELF MORE)

This book allows us to grow self-esteem through stories that trigger imagination, humor and love for oneself, which will allow us to love others in a regular way.

To think on ones' true valor, on the right of being happy in the world for what we are and not for what others want us to be. Beyond the fun and fantasy that we try to bring to boys and girls of all ages, each of these 35 stories illustrates an important aspect to integrate self-esteem in our lives, like a lighthouse built to help people be secure, independent and respectful -to themselves and others-, that know how to love because they learned how to love themselves.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Álex Rovira Celma (Barcelona, 1969) is a Spanish businessman, a writer, an economist, an international speaker and a consultant. He's sold nearly eight million copies of his books, and some of them have even been number one in the bestselling lists in Spain and other countries, both in Catalan and in Spanish. He's also considered one of the biggest experts in Leadership Psychology around the world.

Francesc Miralles (Barcelona, 1968) graduated in German philology and worked as an editor for a publisher of self-help books, where he directed a number of collections and wrote books under a pen-name. He is a writer and journalist specialized in psychology and spirituality. He is the author of more than twenty books. His works have been widely translated.

UN HIJO

(A SON)

Sometimes compared to The Little Prince, a quirky novel filled with tenderness, with a touch of mystery

Guille has apparently nothing in common with his classmates. He is a very special child, he is only nine, and he already knows he wants to be Mary Poppins when he grows up. He seems to be a happy child who loves reading, always smiles and has great imagination; but he hides a mystery.

His mother, Amanda Willet, is absent, but he believes, as told by his father, that she has moved to Dubai to work as an airhostess.

Alejandro Palomas' Un Hijo is an extremely original story, written with tenderness and dedication. The unspoken words of the characters will unravel the mystery that the story presents. It is a sad story made fresh and addictive

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Alejandro Palomas (Barcelona, 1967) has a degree in English Philology from the University de Barcelona and a Master's degree in Poetry from the New College of San Francisco. He collaborated to several newspapers and translated writers such as Katherine Mansfield, Gertrude Stein, Willa Cather and Jack London. In 2011, he published El tiempo que nos une and El cel que ens queda. His latest works (Una Madre, Un Perro and Un Hijo) were all critically-acclaimed and translated into a number of languages. The author was awarded the Children and YA National Prize (2016) for Un hijo and the Nadal Prize (2018) for Un amor..

UN SECRETO

(A SECRET)

The boy who wanted to be Mary Poppins is back in a quirky novel filled with tenderness, and with a touch of mystery

Since Nadia is my friend and she's been living with me and dad since Christmas -it's better that way- she is now my foster sister, but it really feels like she was my real sister but not blood related. And that means we need to tell each other everything. Even the most secret of secrets. However, Nadia has kept hidden the biggest of secrets, because her mother told her that she'd be so sad she'd die if she did.

But in the end, because we are almost siblings, she has told me. Alejandro Palomas' Un Secreto is an extremely original story, written with tenderness and dedication. It is also the follow up to one of the author's most acclaimed work. Un Secreto is so refreshing and lovable that you won't be able to put it down

LA NOIA DE LA CARAVANA

(THE GIRL OF THE CARAVAN)

When only love is the essence

Laura, a sixteen-year-old teenager, leaves with Kilian for the weekend, the boy she likes. Although she feels a little scared, they spend the night in a caravan of an abandoned camping. But the next day the boy has disappeared, and Laura begins to make strange discoveries: unknown tracks on the floor, stacks of copper threads that appear and disappear, messages that urge you to flee written at the entrance of the caravan...

Laura will live a series of increasingly dangerous adventures to get to solve the great enigma that has been involved and overcome the monster that harasses her, which is much closer than she thought.

- ✓ This novel catches you through its plot. You won't be able to stop reading it.
- ✓ Mystery and intrigue in every page.

"I got up from the ground, with the feeling that I had not been breathing for a long time. I did not remember anything. Nothing, except that I was once again inside that caravan. I felt the very sore head. Instinctively I touched it and I was scared to see that my hand was red. I quickly assured myself that I was alone and I ran to look at myself in the mirror of a tiny sink. I did not know what had happened to me or how I had come to this place, but I had a knock at my head."

MEMORIAS SALVAJES

(WILD MEMORIES)

It is a wonderful novel that combines mystery and vital knowledge for teenagers and adults.

A. is having a really delicate moment after her boyfriend, Connor, breaks up with her. She feels devastated, but reading the memories of her aunt Violet will help her overcome the rupture. These memories are explicitly dedicated to her. Violet wanted to write all her madness, all her mistakes, all her life, so that her future niece could learn from them. Violet died at the age of 24 after waking up from a coma of three long years after a car accident. The young woman, aware that, despite having woken up, she would not survive because her body was rejecting a kidney transplant, she begins to become aware that her life is going out and that she has a few days left to live. Anorexia, infidelities, family fights, rivalry between sisters, adolescence and love, that was the life of Violet who, before dying, accepted the request that her sister made her, the great secret of the novel that is finally discovered

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Carolina Lozano was born in the coastal city of Barcelona in 1981. She graduated in Biology and combines a challenging job with the continuation of his studies. Among their hobbies are learning languages, going into unknown woods, archery and, of course, reading compulsively.

Consider, also, that writing is the best excuse to continue learning everything. A decade ago he published his first book, and there are ten books he has published so far. This, Wild Memories, is one of his most beloved works..

KEY SELLING POINTS

- ✓Two different stories that complement each other.
- ✓Originality and tradition. Touches of a futuristic society provoke that differential point of other juvenile romantic novels.
- ✓The reader can enjoy beautiful verses written by the author, which help to better understand the situation and emotions that Violet lives.

EL SECRETO DE MI TURBANTE

(THE SECRET OF MY TURBAN)

The real story of Nadia Ghulam, an Afghan girl who deceived and defied the Taliban Regime

Under his dark colored turban, she leads the morning prayer at the mosque. Everybody respects her and listens to himher even though her voice sounds weak and her body is small. She is a good Muslim, but what her friends and neighbors do not know is that under that turban there is not a young man, but a girl who trembles every time a Taliban man approaches her, afraid that her secret will be revealed. This is the real story of Nadia Ghulam, an Afghan girl who, after two years spent in the hospital recovering from a bomb explosion, an order that forbids women to work falls on her. In order to help her family and keep bringing food to the table, she is forced to make a radical decision: dress up as a man for ten years.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Nadia Ghulam Destgir was born in Kabul in 1985, where she suffered great losses (the civil war, hunger, the Taliban regime) but survived due to her wit and courage. Through a NGO, she arrived to Catalonia, where she is currently living and doing what she always wanted: to study in order to help her country, and herself, to be free as a woman.

Nadia has been interviewed by national and international media such as the radio stations Onda Cero, RNE and COPE, or the acclaimed newspapers The Huffington Post, El País, El Diario de Mallorca, Donna Moderna, Spazio Piemonte, Última Hora, Llegir en cas d'Incendi, and El Español.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- ✓A huge debut: it's sold over 37,000 copies and it's on its 10th printing in Catalan!
- ✓Nadia's heart-wrenching true story is the story of a girl who fought for her freedom.
- ✓An inspirational crossover with essential educational values. Great for reading groups and schools.

"This is the incredible true story of a woman with widespread social involvement, who fights for women's rights, acknowledges the refugees situation and collaborates with entities such as Fundació Pere Tarrés. Nadia is a role model, a great voice against social injustices that will make the reader cry and smile at the same time."

LA PRIMERA ESTRELLA DE LA NOCHE

(THE FIRST STAR OF THE NIGHT)

A real story about the strength of Afghan women, about their suffering and hopes. Unforgettable, honest and emotional.

The story narrates Nadia's real return to Afghanistan, where she wants to find her cousin Mersal and render homage to her deceased aunt. This trip will be a turning point for her, not only because she's travelling back home as a woman for the first time, but because she'll have to endure many trials which will help her discover the strength that runs through the women of her family, and through her.

An inspiring and thought-provoking book that shows the reality that women have to endure in societies where war seems never-ending. A story about women who fight to overcome adversity, no matter how hard it can be.

Javier Diéguez was born in Mollet del Vallés in 1985. He's a historian, although he's worked as an Editor and Writer for various Spanish and Latin American publishing houses. He's also published Politics and International Relations related texts.

KEY SELLING POINTS

- ✓ An inspiring true story about the situation of women in Afghanistan.
- ✓ Nadia is an example of strength and perseverance, a great role model for both young and adult readers.
- ✓ Nadia's story is captivating: Festival Grec de Barcelona also brought to the Centre de Cultura Contemporània de Barcelona (CCCB) a documentary titled 'Nadia'; a dialogue, a conversation and a description that arises from Nadia's true story.

"We are in front of an incredibly strong story, told in first person and filled with emotion. It is obvious how Nadia is a person with incredible interior force. She sacrificed herself dressing up as a man when she was barely a kid and, today, she keeps fighting for her kin. She's a role model, and 'The first star of the night' is a book I would recommend without a doubt."

PORTADORES DEL DON

(BEARERS OF THE GIFT)

When survival ceases to be an option and becomes a necessity: the battle is unleashed. A must-read for fans of The Hunger Games, Game of Thrones or The Lord of the Rings.

The deivos are those condemned for the society, persecuted and murdered to "protect" humans from their fearsome gifts. When Helga is kidnapped after defending a deivo that was just three years old, Berthal, his stepbrother, decides to accept his true identity that has just been rebelled: he is a deivo with dangerous powers. He must cross the entire continent to find Helga and rescue her from Sissel's hands. Along the way, he will meet faithful friends who will accompany and help him in his battle.

What would you be willing to do for a person you love? Love, ambition, friendship, family, battles, powers and death.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Daniel Pastrana Gallego was born in Écija in 1978. He has a degree in Information Sciences at the University of Seville in 2000. Since then, he has worked as a journalist, with a professional background of seventeen years. He works mainly in television, specifically in Écija Comarca Televisión.
