THE COLLECTORS: STORIES

A.S. King

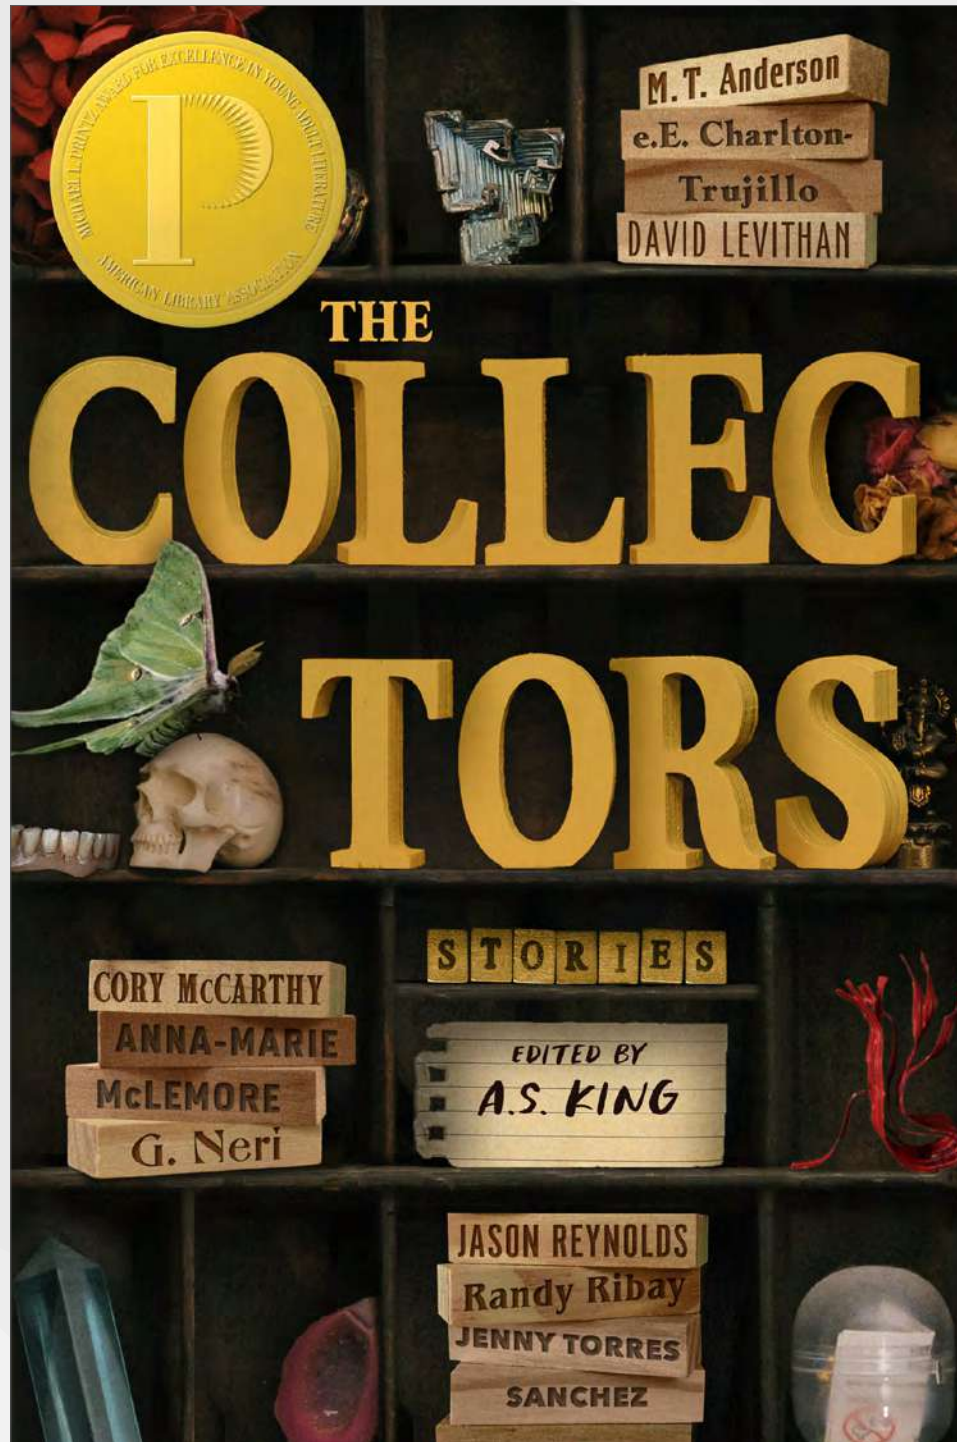

2024 Michael L. Printz Award winner A.S. King and an all-star team of contributors create an anthology of stories about remarkable people and their strange and surprising collections.

Nine of the best YA novelists working today have written fiction based on a prompt from Printz-winner A.S. King (who also contributes a story) and the result is itself an extraordinary collection.

Contributors include: M.T. Anderson, e.E. Charlton-Trujillo, A.S. King, David Levithan, Cory McCarthy, Anna-Marie McLemore, G. Neri, Jason Reynolds, Randy Ribay, Jenny Torres Sanchez

RED IN TOOTH AND CLAW

Lish McBride

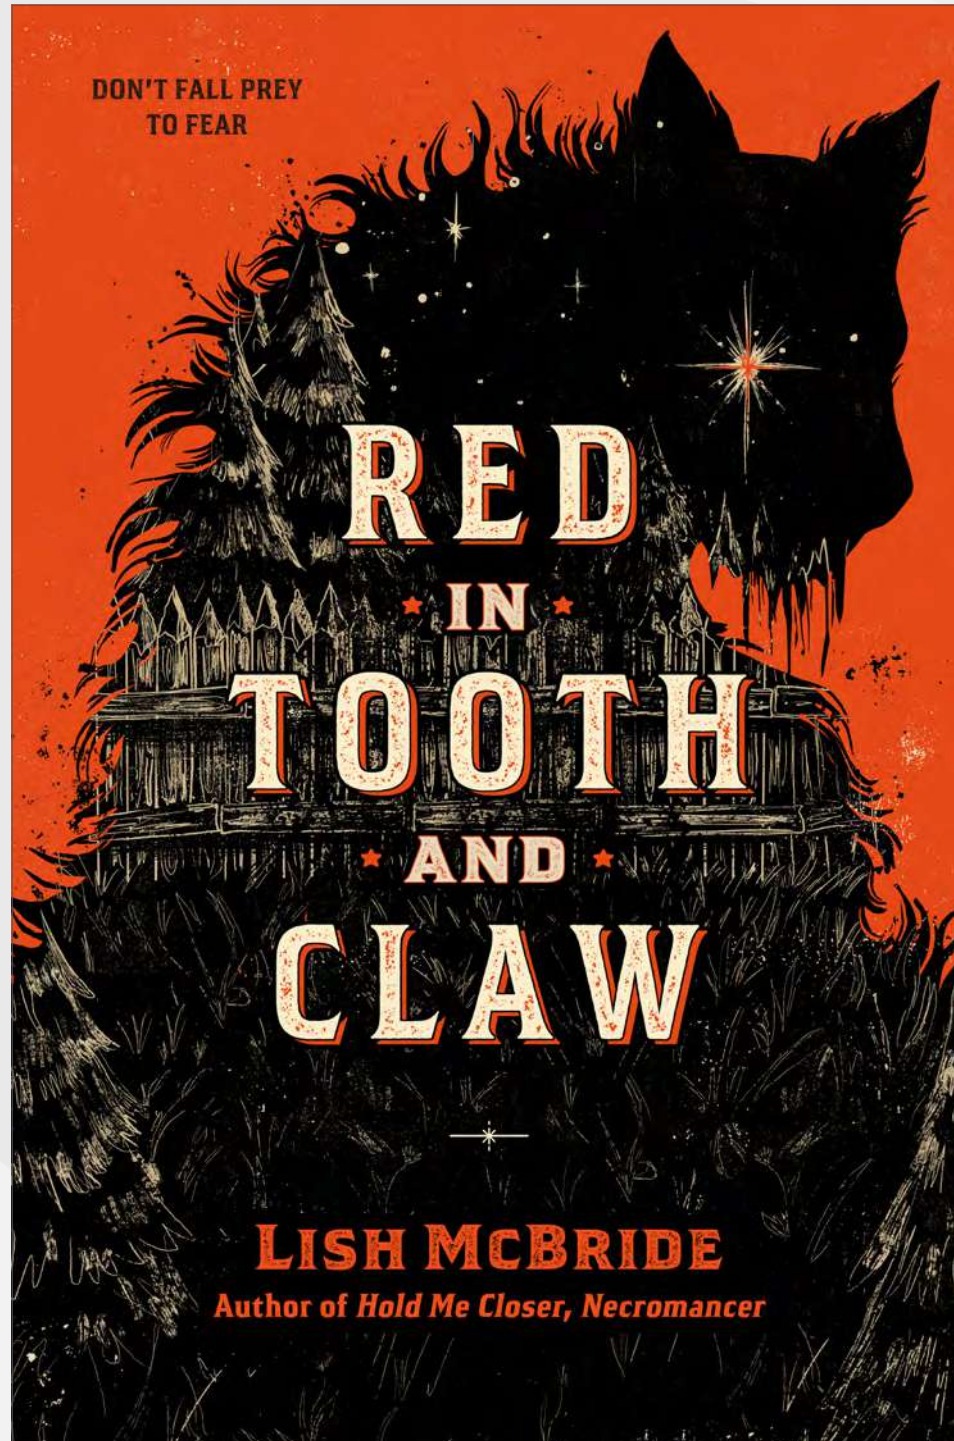

This edge-of-your-seat YA horror flips Western archetypes for a gritty, edgy, and wholly original read.

Faolan Kelly is alone in the world and suddenly homeless, so she is shipped off to the Settlement, a remote fort where social outcasts live.

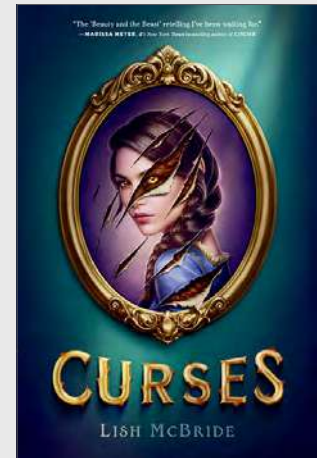

When Faolan finds the body mangled by something that can't possibly be human, it's clear something vicious is out there. And as people continue to drop like flies, Faolan knows she must escape to evade the creature's wrath.

STREETLIGHT PEOPLE

Charlene Thomas

Eerie, twisty, and thought provoking, Streetlight People is a story of growing up in—and out of—a small town with a huge secret.

Streetlight is a town that most people couldn't find on a map. If you actually live in Streetlight, though, you definitely know where you stand: you're either a Have-Not or a Have-A-Lot—it's been this way as long as anyone can remember and no one forgets the difference. Though these labels may seem to be about money, some things are much more valuable, especially in Streetlight.

HOPE IN A JAR

Deborah Marcero

In this companion to the acclaimed and bestselling picture books In a Jar and Out of a Jar, a little bunny and his friends collect their hopes and dreams for the future in jars.

Llewellyn the bunny and his friends dream of many things: like learning to ice skate, visiting a friend, and like going to the moon. Their dreams feel so precious that the bunnies place them in jars for safekeeping. But when a storm comes and destroys their collection of jars, Llewellyn and his friends wonder: what's the point of dreaming if everything could be lost?

HOW DO YOU SPEND? A MONEYBUNNY BOOK

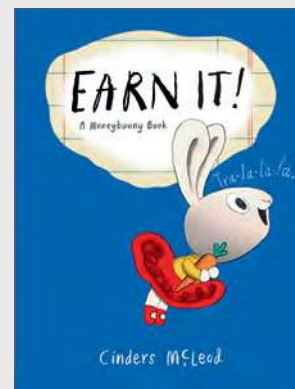

Cinders McLeod

Celebrate the many different ways a little bunny can spend her savings, and learn about opposites too!

Bun has been saving her carrots, and now it's time to spend some—but HOW will she spend them? Well, she could spend fast and buy a lot of things all at once, or she could take her time and spend slowly on something unique. She could buy something ordinary like a toothbrush, or something exciting like a mini sports car. There are so many options, and little bunnies will have a ball considering them all!

SHARING IS UNBEARABLE!

J. E. Morris

What's a pair of bears to do when they can't decide who get dibs on the perfect nap spot? Find out in this playful picture book with fun graphic novel-style art!

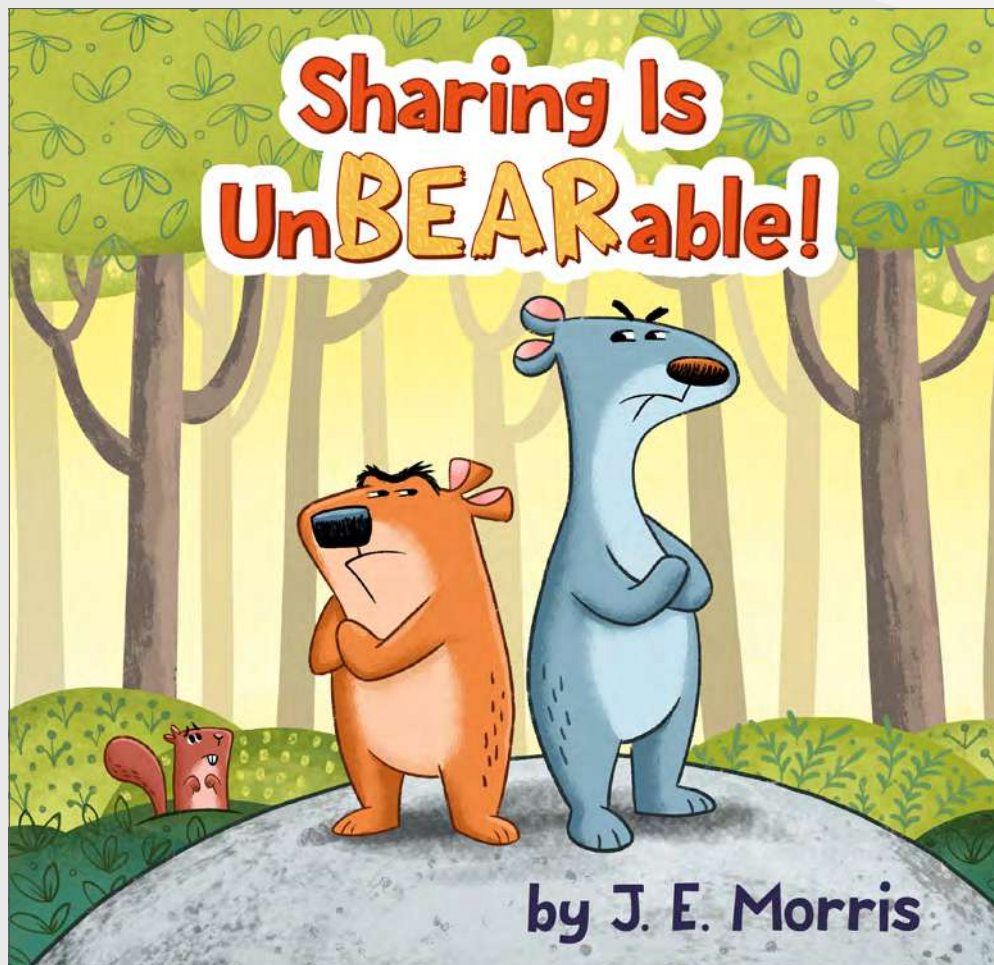

When a bear named Orson goes for a walk in the forest one day, he finds a big rock that's the perfect place to take a nap. The only problem is that another bear named Izzy has also found the rock, and she wants to take a nap there, too.

Everyone knows that bears don't share. But can the duo come up with a resolution to resolve their rocky relationship anyway?

THE CHINESE NEW YEAR HELPER

Ying Chang Compestine;
Illustrated by Ginnie Hsu

A young girl finds an exciting role for herself at the Chinese New Year celebration in her family's restaurant.

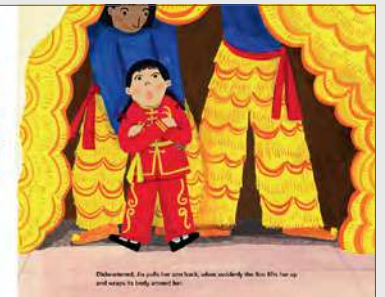

Jia's family is busy preparing for the Chinese New Year feast, and Jia wants to take part. But each time she tries to help she's told that she's too young. Then, one of the dancers in the lion dance swoops her up and into the costume, and suddenly she's a part of the performance—a crucial part that saves the show.

SHIP IN THE WINDOW

Travis Jonker; Illustrated by Matthew Cordell

Caldecott Medalist Matthew Cordell and librarian Travis Jonker have crafted a timeless tale of a little mouse and a big adventure.

Mabel the mouse wants nothing more than to be a fearless sea captain traveling the world in search of adventure. Every night she watches a man carefully construct a model ship, as his son watches by her side. Mabel and the boy know the model ship is anything but a toy, but they both long to see if it can really float. So Mabel hatches a plan to make her seafaring dreams come true.

BEING HOME

Traci Sorrell; Illustrated by Michaela Goade

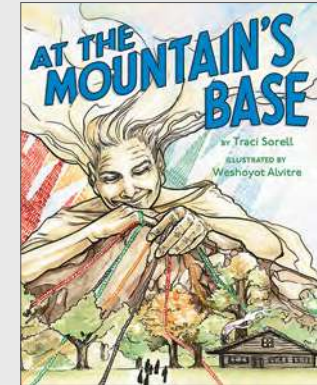

From Sibert Honor-winning author Traci Sorell and Caldecott Medal-winning artist Michaela Goade comes a heartwarming picture book about a Native American family and the joy of moving back to their ancestral land.

Today is a day of excitement—it's time to move! She looks forward to the end of the road trip, where she'll eat the feast her family has prepared, play in the creek with her cousins, and settle in.

With warm, expressive artwork and spare, lyrical prose, the story of a young girl's move toward rather than away from home unfolds.

THE POET AND THE BEES

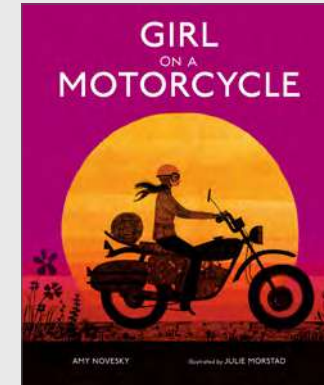

Amy Novesky;
Illustrated by Jessica Love

A mesmerizing picture book about the iconic poet Sylvia Plath and her final writings.

Sylvia Plath is revered as a confessional poet and remembered for the tragic legacy her work left behind. But it is lesser known that she worked as a beekeeper and completed her last book of poems while tending to her bees. Writer and beekeeper Amy Novesky captures Plath unlike ever before through her haunting verse, while the evocative paintings by Stone-wall Book Award winner Jessica Love reveal the tenderness and wonder of one of America's most iconic poets.

THE ONE & ONLY GOOGOOSH

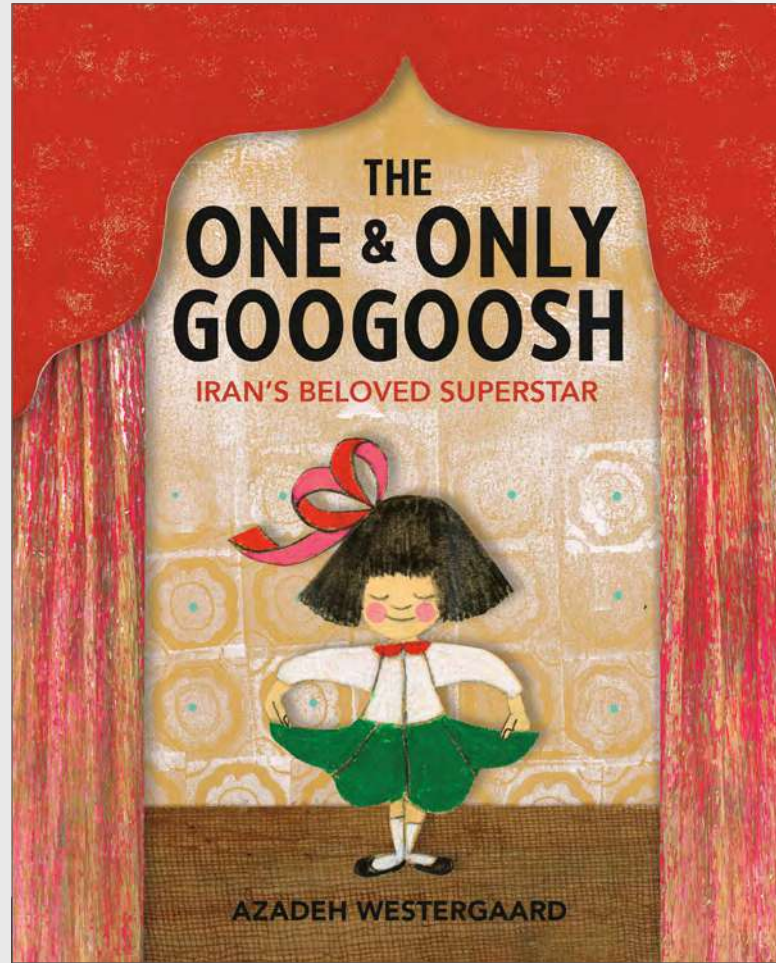

Azadeh Westergaard

A celebration of one of Iran's most iconic musical artists.

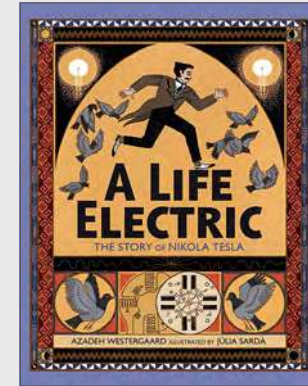

Googoosh was only two when she first appeared onstage, performing alongside her acrobat father. By adulthood, she had become one of Iran's first superstars. Her face appeared on television, magazines, and billboards. Women cut their hair into a "Googooshi" to look more like her.

But in 1979, concert halls, cinemas, and other venues were shut down. The Iranian Revolution had begun and her career was finished.

Azadeh Westergaard brings Googoosh's story to life with lyrical text and stunning collage.
