High Lights

SANDRA BRUNA
AGENCIA LITERARIA

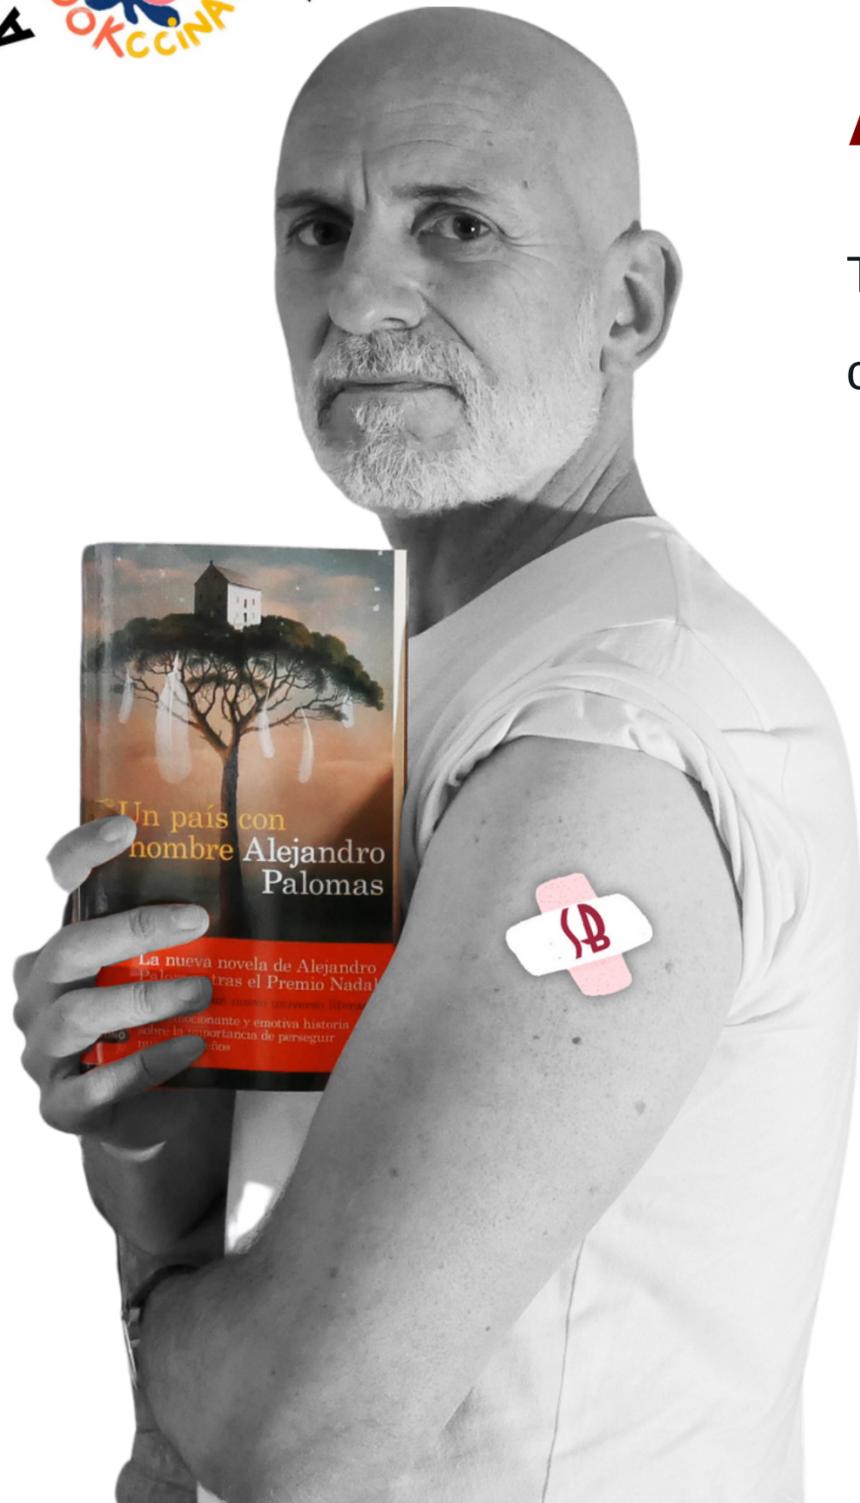

Last year our campaign for the Frankfurt's Fair consisted in defend the best masks in the market and we came up with the #mymaskisabook campaign and now the Frankfurt's Fair is around the corner and yet again is atypical.

This year our agency and our authors are going for #bookccinated. Reading as the best vaccine. The vaccine is saving us from this world pandemic and books have always been the best vaccine against everything that is not useful. For this reason, this year our authors are going for vaccines against ignorance, intolerance, forgetting, sadness, pessimism... through books.

We encourage the readers, editors and authors to join #bookccinated sharing a photo in social media with a book and the hastag #bookccinated against what reading vaccines them from.

Let's fill social media of books and the benefits of reading. Remember to to mention @sandra_bruna_agencia_literaria.
